Literature

- Literature representative was not present

When & Where

- Jim has not printed any recently due to the fact many groups are still looking for a new meeting location

Promises

- Debra T was not present

Website

- A change in providers took place Saturday, November 4th transferred from G0 Daddy to HostGator. There were no issues and the website is running perfectly. Go Daddy was around $206 per year and HostGator is $184.84 for three years.
- Glenn informed us that Kate from Lucky to be Here is interested in being the Webmaster and she and Robert will work together in that transition.

Helpline

- Ray was concerned that the telephone number through text was not being forwarded, however, Robert was able to test it during the meeting and it looks like it is working now.

Events

- Michelle shared that the Halloween party was a success and made reservations for next year which will be on Saturday, October 19, 2024 at the Hammock Community Center
- The group decided the picnic would be held April 13th at the Hammock Center
  - Michelle will reserve for 150 people and obtain the permit
  - Michelle to reserve the Pavilion as well
  - Glenn suggested this event could be centered around the Big Book as it was first published April 10th. He thought a play he has seen in the past may be fun.
  - We are establishing a committee to help facilitate the picnics success, the following have volunteered so far: Michelle, Glenn, Jim, David T, Ruth
