4. Committee Reports

- Literature (Carol)
 - Slow month, sold more medallions and less literature
- Where and When (Steve)
 - Where and Whens updated, one Zoom meeting has been deleted
- Promises (Heather)
 - Heather reported that the Promises newsletter is going well. She is adding a form to see if anyone looks at the newsletter. She adds a couple interesting articles to keep people's interest.
- Hotline (Pat & Heather)
 - Has been a couple busy weeks. Mostly people looking for meetings.
 - Heather would like names of people willing to give newcomers, sober house residents, older members, etc. rides to meetings. Will be adding a QR code on the Promises for members to fill in to volunteer to give rides. She especially needs men's names.
 - *This item has been kept from last month's minutes. Pat would like someone to take over position or at least help out because of his travel schedule. Heather volunteered to help in June and July. Someone will need to take over the hotline in August. Glenn suggested that in the spirit of rotation, Pat can look for a replacement
- District Liaison (Aaron)
 - Sarah has the 3 missing bins, 2 are archives, 1 is paper goods.
 - Steve is the chairperson for CPC/PI. Meeting will be Monday night 6:30, Flagler Beach Methodist Church
 - Discussed possibly having an AA booth at events such as First Friday. Cost at First Friday is $100 and discussion ensued as to doing that monthly or perhaps even quarterly.
 - Grapevine offers resources such as a free app with podcasts
 - The Area Assembly will be held at the end of the month. Will be voting on proper procedures followed by GSO when making changes to AA literature, preamble, etc.
 - Tyler stepped up to be the Intergroup Rep to attend the Area Assembly and attend the Intergroup committee on July 25th, 1:30-2:30, and report back at the next FC Intergroup meeting on August 3rd. Members asked specifically for new service manuals to be brought back from the Area Assembly.

- Website (Max)
 - The website is going well, Meetings are up to date on the website, Bowling is added, The Summer Bash has been added. Max will add the time and place for the CPC/PI meeting under service committees.
